PROMINENT MEN AID CAMPAIGN

State Wide Recognition Given to Project of Storrs Church

Henry S. Graves, Dean of the Yale School of Forestry and Provost of the university, has sent a letter to the Storrs church and Community House committee expressing his appreciation for the work that our college is doing for the community at large. The letter reads as follows:

YALE UNIVERSITY
School of Forestry
New Haven, Connecticut

February 17, 1926.

I am deeply interested in the educational work at Storrs. The College is doing admirable work. I come into constant contact with it, for I have several students at the Forest School whose work shows the excellence of their previous training.

The College is properly taking a broad view of its educational task. It is not only offering a good technical training in agriculture but is preparing its students to participate in the building up of the communities in which they live.

The influence in character building at the College are considerations of great importance at Storrs as at every educational institution. In this the

SURPRISE BY 33-18 WIN

Makofski, Schofield and Eddy Score Often.—Connecticut Team Work Good.—Aggies Best Exhibition of Season.

Displaying the fastest offensive and the most consistent team-work ever seen this year on the chalked court, the Connecticut Aggies humbled the fast New Hampshire State College team at Durham, N. H., last Saturday by the score of 33-18. The game was played before a capacity crowd that was assembled to witness the Winter Carnival at the University of New Hampshire, and Connecticut created a fine impression on the assemblage by their fast style of play.

New Hampshire was the favorite to win over the Aggies and had the advantage of playing on their home court. The superior team-work displayed by Coach Dole's team was the biggest factor in lowering the colors of the New Hampshire quintet.

The game started off with a bang. New Hampshire registering first when Craig made good a free try for goal. Here the Aggies started an offensive which they maintained throughout the Faculty Blossoms Forth In Multi-Colored Costumes.—Wild Man Found to Inhabit Armory.

Mardi Gras, as staged at the Armory by the Women's Club of Storrs last Monday night, proved to be the most colorful entertainment seen locally for some time. Elaborate costumes were the rule and masks made the task of identification difficult in many cases.

In opening the entertainment feature, the royal procession marched into the Armory and to the stage. First came Mrs. Dole, as herald, preceding all announcements with a blast from a trumpet. Next came the royal coach, drawn by little girls in paper dresses. Lieut. Bunting as king and Mildred Annan as queen made an imposing appearance. Following came the lords and ladies of the court. Arrived on the stage, old-fashioned dances were called for. Frank M. Hall of Mansfield Hollow "fiddled" for the dance in true Henry Ford style. As the court attendants had practiced to piano accompaniment and had no opportunity to adapt their steps to the tempo of the Mansfield Hollow fiddler, the change made somewhat of a mess of the first dance, a polka. The dancers soon got into the swing, however, and performed a schottische in excellent style. The old

FROM HOLY CROSS

Hold Lead Throughout Game to Win
by 31-19 Score

After the poor showing against the Trinity Junior Varsity the night before, the Connecticut Aggie Freshmen amply vindicated themselves by grabbing a 31 to 19 victory from the strong Holy Cross Freshmen last Saturday evening at Hawley Armory.

The Aggie yearlings led throughout and showed a smooth working passing game as well as accurate shooting, something that was sadly lacking in the Trinity game. At half time the Aggies were in the van by a 17 to 7 score and during the final period this lead was maintained.

White was the high scorer for the yearlings with six field goals and three foul goals for a total of fifteen points. Hewitt and Croze also got in the scoring column. Dall and Fassett at the guard positions both played strong games.

Morris, right guard on the Holy Cross five, seemed to be the only visiting performer able to register with any degree of consistency. The Holy Cross five could not break through the Connecticut five man defense and all their goals were of the long shot type.

Drop Poorly Played Game to Hartford
Team.—Both Teams Held to Two Baskets.

The Connecticut Aggie freshman five was defeated by the Trinity Junior Varsity in Hartford last Friday, 12 to 7. The game was very slow and poorly played. It marked the first time that a Trinity team has beaten a team from the Aggies in some time.

The yearling five were way off form and gave a poor exhibition of basket ball. Time and again the Aggie five would bring the ball down the floor only to lose the ball by fumbling or by poor passing. Only two field goals were made by the Aggie yearlings. The freshmen couldn't see the basket as many easy shots were missed. Dall played a strong

Bay Staters Undefeated.—Aggies
Lineup Unchanged.—Fast Game
Promised.—Dole Noncommittal.

What promises to be the most interesting court game of the year will be played next Monday night, when the rival fives of the Connecticut and Massachusetts Agricultural Colleges will meet at the new state armory in South Manchester.

Massachusetts Aggies, with a string of nine victories and no defeats, is bringing to Connecticut the best quintet that institution ever possessed. Connecticut Aggies, with a record of seven victories and two defeats, is putting on the floor a team that ranks with the greatest of Aggie fives, and one that only needs to turn back their Bay State rivals Monday to be ranked in the minds of many as the greatest five ever developed at Storrs.

The nine teams defeated by Massachusetts Aggies, with the scores of the games, are as follows: Norwich, 36-26; New Hampshire, 20-13; Holy Cross, 31-20; Clark, 25-23; Worcester Tech, 25-14; Middlebury, 16-14; Williams, 34-31; Brown, 20-12; and Wesleyan, 32-19.

Starting for Massachusetts will be Captain Temple and Partenheimer in the forecourt, both members of the mythical All New England team. Jones will jump center. Smiley will play one guard position, while Griffin or Thomas will occupy the other. Four of these men played against Connecticut last year at Amherst, when the Bay Staters won by a 20-18 score.

Connecticut's lineup will remain unchanged. Captain Makofski will jump center, with Schofield and Eddy in the forecourt. Allard and Bitgood will play the guard positions. Eddy is the only man on the starting lineup who did not play against Massachusetts a year ago.

The varsity game will get under way at 8 p. m., with James Young of North Adams, Mass., refereeing. Prior to the varsity contest, the Manchester Community Girls will play the Regal Girls of New Haven, their game starting at 7 p. m.

Coach Dole declined to make any statement on the approaching game.

FIRST GAME OF NORTHERN

Eddy High Scorer For Aggies.—Fast
Offense and Accurate Shooting
Counts Heavily For Connecticut.—
Aggies Lead 22-18 at Half Time.

The Connecticut Aggie basket ball team defeated Maine University in a sizzling encounter at Orono, Maine last Friday by the score of 34-26. The game proved to be one of the fastest and closest basket ball games seen on the Maine floor and so evenly matched were the two teams that no more than six points separated the two teams up to the last few minutes of play.

Connecticut displayed a fast offensive throughout the game and forged ahead with some accurate shooting in the closing minutes of the game. The Maine quintet put up a stubborn battle throughout the forty minutes of play and continually threatened to take the lead from the Aggies.

Maine scored first when Lake dropped two free-throws through the hoop. Here the Aggies started a fast offensive that netted three field goals making the score 6-2 in favor of Connecticut. Maine dropped a field goal through the net for two points. The Aggies kept the lead over Maine for the rest of the first half and the score stood 22-18 at intermission in Connecticut's favor.

The second half was featured by close guarding by both teams. Maine managed to keep close to the Aggies but were unable to wrest the lead from Connecticut. Field goals by Makofski, Eddy and Schofield increased the Aggies lead over the Pine Tree State College team so that Connecticut was way ahead when the final whistle blew. The final score was 34-26.

Eddy was high scorer for the Aggies and Captain Makofski and Schofield were close seconds in the scoring column. Schofield contributed two pretty one-handed shots from difficult angles that featured the scoring. Captain Lake kept the Maine team in the running during the game by scoring six field goals and two fouls for a total of fourteen points. Maine's left forward, Kamenkovitz, was one of the cleverest floor players that have played against the Aggies this season. Connecticut's guards, "Slivver" Allard and "Newt" Bitgood, played a stellar game in the back court, keeping the Maine score down.

VERMONT BOASTS OF STRONG TEAM

Close Battle Expected When Granite
State Five Meets Aggies on Court
Tonight.

After a rest of two days from their northern trip, Coach Dole put his varsity squad through some stiff workouts in preparation for their game with the University of Vermont tonight. Vermont boasts of a strong team this year on the chalked court, and comes to Connecticut to make the Blue and White quintet exert itself to the utmost to claim a victory.

The Green and Gold has defeated New Hampshire, Springfield, Norwich, St. Michael's and Middlebury. Union College, Manhattan, and New York University are the only colleges up to date that have registered victories over Vermont.

Coach Dole will use the same lineup that defeated both the Universities of Maine and New Hampshire. Captain Makofski will be at his usual position at center, with Schofield and Eddy in the forward positions, while Allard and Bitgood will hold down the guard berths.

Great Interest Created Over Important
Contest Monday Night.—Winners May Be Conference Champions.

The new State Armory at South Manchester will be a place of lively interest next Monday evening when the Mass. Aggie and Conn. Aggie quintets clash for their annual battle on the chalked court. Both claim to have the best teams that ever represented their institutions.

Up to date Mass. Aggie has played nine games without meeting defeat while Connecticut has won seven of its nine games. In the comparison of schedules, however, it is noted that the Connecticut quintet has met stronger opponents than their rivals. In addition it is found that six of Mass. Aggie's games were played on her home court, while Connecticut played all but four of her contests away from home.

Both teams have met Norwich, New Hampshire and Wesleyan. Conn. defeated the first two, 48-16 and 33-19 respectively, while the Bay Staters were only able to score 36-26 and 20-13 victories over them. Wesleyan however, proved to be a stumbling block for the Nutmeg quintet. Wesleyan, playing Mass. Aggie at Amherst, went down to defeat by the score of 32-19.

Substitutions: Derrell for Hanscom, Williams for Eddy, Watson for Allard. Score at end of first half, 22-18. Time of halves, 20 minutes. Referee, Boundy.

J. W. DAVIS
The Cucumber King

The Money Making Secret of J. W. Davis' Success

DOUBTLESS you already know of him.

If you don't, he is the Cucumber King.

Grows cucumbers in greenhouses.

Acres and acres covered with greenhouses, growing "painless cucumbers" as he jokingly calls them.

Just a few years ago, I sat in the twilight beside his open fire.

He is a modest man and it's hard to get him to loosen up. But few of us can withstand the influence of an open fire.

So he told me about how he started with a little old fashioned greenhouse and used to peddle the vegetables and flowers about town.

For several years, he and his brother worked like dogs, and had no more at the end of the year.

Then one day he took some of his meagre savings out of the ginger jar, and took a trip to see how other greenhouse men made all the money he had heard they made.

He came back with a new vision.

Sold out to his brother, interested a man with some money, and built one of our big iron frame houses for growing just cucumbers.

That was about 12 years ago.

Now, although still a young man, he owns four big ranges of greenhouses in different parts of the country.

Spends his winters in Florida and all that sort of thing.

There's money in growing greenhouse cucumbers.

If J. W. Davis can become a millionaire at it, why can't you?

Start small. Grow big.

Here's something to get right into after graduation.

Start making money the first year.

Write us asking all the questions you want to.

You can't ask too many for us.

Tell your Dad about it.

Get Mother interested.

Let's put this thing over together.

CAMPUS MAKES PROFIT

The financial report of The Campus for the first semester, as submitted by Business Manager E. W. Nelson, is printed in this issue. The prediction made last month that a profit would be made for the first semester has been realized, and the report shows a net return of $184.88 for the first half year. This amount would have been almost doubled but for the necessity of expending $178.62 as the final payment on the 1924-25 printing bill.

Any profit, however small, comes to The Campus Board as a welcome change in the usual order of things. The paper had struggled so long under a heavy debt that the likelihood of making a profit seemed very remote. Last year the student body contributed several hundred dollars to pay the greater part of a debt that had been steadily growing since 1922. That debt was completely wiped out last semester, and with the beginning of the new term, The Campus is free of debt, and has a slight surplus ahead.

WE STAND CORRECTED!

Mr. M. A. McCarron, former Campus editor, writes that the statement in the January 15 issue to the effect that this is the first year The Campus has made a profit, is incorrect. Business Manager Austin, in 1921, made a profit of over $300, according to Mr. McCarron, who feels that some retraction should be made in justice to Mr. Austin.

We agree with Mr. McCarron, and the retraction is cheerfully made. And to Mr. Austin, and to any other business managers who have been able to make this paper pay financially, The Campus offers its belated, but hearty congratulations. Experience has shown us that extracting from our advertisers and student body the dollars necessary to publish this paper is no small task. Indeed, it makes our other problems of a college course small in comparison, not excepting the "overhead" and Economics 3! We would naturally expect that in 1921 the task of financing The Campus would be even more difficult than today, for then the college was smaller and there were fewer students from whom to obtain subscriptions. Mr. Austin managed to pull through with a profit in his regime, however, all of which ranks him as more or less of a financial wizard in the minds of the present Campus Board. We hope this year is the beginning of a return to "the good old days" so far as Campus finances are concerned. And if any of the financiers who in the past were able to make The Campus pay a profit care to do so, we would be glad to learn from them their methods by which they were able to accomplish so difficult a task.

MARDI GRAS HELD BY WOMAN'S CLUB

fashioned square dances that followed went off perfectly.

Then followed a program of royal entertainment. A. J. Brundage gave an exhibition of acrobatic dancing. He was followed by Roy E. Jones and his educated rooster, the bird winning rounds of applause by crowing at appropriate moments. Don Patch as the court artist drew a picture of the proposed Storrs church. E. W. Sinnott starred as an Italian organ grinder. Mr. and Mrs. Guyer, as Rudolph Valentino and Irene Castle, danced the tango. A. G. Skinner and Mrs. Alling, as the Father of His Country and Mrs. Washington, danced a minuet. Mrs. Tenney, as medicine man, was called upon to revive the queen in a fainting spell. The star performer, however, was Coach Dole as Bimbo, the Wild Man of Borneo. Under the tutelage of his trainer, Prof. Gumbart, and stimulated by the barking off stage of a wild dog, impersonated by Mr. Tilley, the wild man gave an impressive exhibition of his wildness.

Following the stage entertainment square dances were held on the floor of the Armory to the accompaniment of the fiddler, after which the fox-trotters got into action to the tunes of Walford's orchestra—the orchestra members also being in costume.

First prize for prettiest costume went to Mrs. H. A. Seckerson and first prize for most original costume to Mrs. L. B. Tenney. The judges, in cap and gown, were Prof. Garrigus, Dan Noble and Henry T. Covell.

Among the many excellent impersonations were: Christine Beebe, peanut vender; George White, Robin Hood; L. B. Tenney, clown; Prescott Thornton, pirate; "Peg" Creedon, French doll; Mrs. Savage and Mrs. Crandall as Martha and George Washington; Mrs. Noble, a Bowery "bum"; Miss Dodge, an old-fashioned girl; Mrs. Hendrickson, a valentine; and Miss Keyes, queen of hearts.

Refreshments consisted of coffee and cakes and punch. A large crowd attended.

The entertainment was staged under direction of Mrs. Frank A. Ferguson, who planned all of the details. Mr. Skinner and Mr. Guyer trained the dancers.

PROMINENT MEN AID CAMPAIGN

Church and Community House can pay an important part. Your project certainly deserves the strong support of all citizens of the state.

Very sincerely yours,

(Signed)

HENRY S. GRAVES, Dean.

"Extension work has put the college on the map," is the commentary of Edward W. Hazen of Haddam, Conn. Letters have been received from many prominent men in this state praising the activities of the college and especially emphasizing the good which the Community House will do. Among these noteworthy men are ex-Governor Marcus H. Holcomb; George E. Vincent, President of the Rockefeller Foundation; Homer Cummings of the firm of Cummings and Lockwood, Stamford, Conn.; and Schuyler Merritt, a member of the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Relations in the House of Representatives.

The foregoing statements concerning the usefulness of the college, as seen by these men prominent in Public life, are incorporated in a pamphlet to be used in connection with the Storrs church campaign.

STORRS CHURCH REAPS BENEFITS OF CATTLE SALE

A sale of cattle may be an unusual way to raise money for a church, but there is nothing wrong about the contributions amounting to $5,000 which Rev. M. E. Alling has received in behalf of Storrs church. These gifts were brought about in a peculiar manner in which bulls played no small part.

Col. A. V. Barnes, a New York business man and a breeder of Jersey cattle, was approached by Mr. Alling for a contribution towards the erection of the new Storrs church. Colonel Barnes decided that he would donate the proceeds of a sale of four bulls which he owned. In the process of selling, Mr. O. G. Jennings of Fairfield heard of the proposed Storrs church and offered $500 for a bull. At the request of Mr. Alling he gave an additional $2,000. Miss Jennings, his sister, tendered $1,000 for the cause. These donations, together with Colonel Barnes' contribution, total $5,000.

Colonel Barnes' father has given much money in the past to Cornell for such buildings as the new Storrs church.

All of the eight living ex-governors of this state have generously contributed to the campaign.

game taking the lead from New Hampshire, and was never headed during the remainder of the game. Connecticut maintained a slight lead over the Granite Staters and the game turned into a fast encounter that became rougher as the game progressed. The shooting of Schofield, Eddy and Makofski was responsible for the Aggies rolling up a comfortable lead. The crowd was kept in a constant uproar by the speed of the game and it was only by the superior guarding of the New Hampshire forwards by Allard and Bitgood that the score of the Granite Staters was kept down. Intermission found the Aggies in front leading by the score of 18-7.

After play was resumed New Hampshire threw a scare into the Aggie team by scoring three field goals in succession bringing the score up to 18-13 in favor of Connecticut. At this point the Aggies braced and drew away from their opponents. The game was much closer in this half as the Aggies scored fifteen points to New Hampshire's eleven. Schofield sunk two pretty field goals in this half. Eddy, Makofski and Schofield were the high scorers for Connecticut and the defensive work of Allard and Bitgood featured. Captain Cotton and Taylor were the leading performers for New Hampshire, the former getting six field goals.

A. A. TO HAVE ATHLETIC NIGHT

A new feature is being sponsored by the Athletic Association for the purpose of awarding certificates to varsity men who have won letters in major sports. The certificates will be awarded in the dining hall on March 14 during the regular evening meal.

An interesting program for the evening has been arranged by the committee in charge. It will consist of a light banquet, short talks by members of the faculty, and speeches by men of athletic prominence. The college "Syncopaters" will furnish the music for the occasion.

When it's a rainy night—and with three crafty bridge players your luck is running wild
—have a Camel!

WHEN the dark skies are pouring rain outside. And fickle fate deals you hands at bridge that you play with consummate skill—have a Camel!

For Camel is the silent partner that helps every deserving player win his game. Camels never hurt or tire the taste, never leave a trace of cigaretty after-taste. Regardless of the gold you spend, you'll never get choicer tobaccos than those rolled into Camels.

So this evening as you ply your unerring skill, evoke then the mellowest fragrance that ever came from a cigarette.

Have a Camel!

Camels represent the utmost in cigarette quality. The choicest of Turkish and Domestic tobaccos are blended into Camels by master blenders and the finest of French cigarette paper is made especially for them. Into this one brand is concentrated all of the knowledge, all of the skill of the world's largest organization of expert tobacco men.

Our highest wish, if you do not yet know Camel quality, is that you try them. We invite you to compare Camels with any cigarette made at any price.

RADIO STATION W. C. A. C. CELEBRATES FOURTH ANNIVERSARY NEXT WEEK from 8.30 to 9.30 and from 11 o'clock until two.

At present the college station uses the same power as WTIC, Hartford but the low wave length used by the Storrs Station proves unreliable for communication within Connecticut although it is received with good signal strength in Vermont, New Hampshire and other distant points. Such a condition is due to an absorption of

If it is not possible to eventually gain the use of a more favorable wave length, the Radio Staff hopes to reduce the wave length to the thirty or forty meter relay class and make some arrangement with a nearby super-power station to re-broadcast our agricultural talks on the highest wave length of the super-station.

RIFLE TEAM WINS THREE OF FIVE

The Rifle Team made a clean sweep during the week of January 23, winning matches from West Maryland College, University of Maine, and the University of South Dakota. They scored 3522, 3327, and 3488 respectively, while the Aggie Team shot a total of 3674 out of a possible 4000. This week, however, the team did not fare so well. Of the four matches shot this week, two have been reported as lost. The best our team could do was 3501 out of a possible 4000, while North Carolina State College and the University of Delaware won with scores of 3644 and 3545 respectively. Matches with the Mississippi A. & M. College and Penn-State have not been reported as yet. To date the Rifle Team has won sixteen out of nineteen matches shot, John Hopkins, North Carolina State and the University of Delaware being the only teams that can claim victories over the Aggies.

$15000.00 Cash Prizes

For Feeders of Dairy Cows and Beef Cattle

Every state fair and livestock show conducts a feeding contest. The premium list is the book of rules. Every contestant must pay an entry fee or stall rent and also buy his feed.

Most of these fairs and shows are commercial enterprises and they are expected to earn a profit. They are supported by all agricultural colleges and livestock associations because they help the farmer and feeder.

We thoroughly believe in rewarding feeders for their skill in getting the utmost out of their feeding materials. They should be encouraged in every way possible, therefore we have launched the greatest feeders' contest of all—

122 Cash Prizes—$15,000.00

14 Prizes for Cow Testing Associations	$3,000.00
14 Prizes for Individual Dairy Herds	2,100.00
7 Prizes for Championship Cows	1,000.00
14 Prizes for Beef Cattle Feeders	2,500.00
12 Prizes for supervisors or verifiers	2,650.00
24 Prizes for herd managers	1,250.00
37 Prizes for co-operating feed dealers	2,500.00
122 Prizes, totaling	$15,000.00

Every feeder of six or more dairy cows, or forty or more beef cattle is urged to enter this contest. You can feed anything you like just so the grain ration contains 25% or more of Corn Gluten Feed—the protein feed that makes meat or milk at the lowest cost.

You should enter your college herds. The members of your animal husbandry classes should become certifying supervisors for other feeders. This will be valuable experience in your college course and may earn the supervisors prizes.

This contest starts April 1 and ends September 30, 1926. The simple rules and conditions are given in detail in our Bulletin No. 4. This bulletin and our new book, "The Gospel of Good Feeding" will be mailed free. Write for them Now.

Last Monday night at the armory the Sophomores went into first place in the class league by defeating the Seniors and the Juniors by trouncing the School of Ag. went into a tie with the Freshmen for third place.

The Sophomore five were the winners over the Seniors, the final score being 14 to 10. It was a torrid contest that was marked by rough playing on both sides. At no time during the contest did either team have a comfortable lead and it was not until the final whistle that the outcome was decided. Krayeski and Kennedy were the shining lights for the second year men while Donovan and Quigley proved to advantage for the Seniors.

In the other game, the Juniors had little difficulty in disposing of the School of Ag. running up a score of 31 to 4. Smith and Ajello both scored heavily and helped the Junior score along.

COLLEGE DRAMATIC CLUB TO GIVE THREE PLAYS

Three plays will be presented in Hawley Armory by the State College Players on Friday evening, February 26, 1926. The program, which follows, promises to be one of the most attractive ever given at the college.

"The Bracelet," by Alfred Sutro. Characters: Harvey Western, Mr. Clark; Judge Banket, Mr. Hoadley; William, Mr. Young; Martin, Mr. Seagrave; Mrs. Western, Miss Tonkin; Mrs. Banket, Miss Graf; Miss Farren; Miss Smith; Smithers, Miss Wilkes.

"The Drums of Oude," by Austin Strong. Characters: MacGregor, Mr. Billipp; Hartley, Mr. Belden; MacDougal, Mr. Ahern; Sentry, Mr. Sullivan; Hindustani servants, Mr. Hoadley, Mr. Rabinowitz; Mrs. Clayton, Miss Wilkinson.

"The Clod," by Lewis Beach. Characters: Mary Trask, Miss Koster; Thaddeus Trask, Mr. Tiebout; Northernner, Mr. Gatchell; Southern sergeant, Mr. Billipp; Southern private, Mr. Ahern.

"The Clod," by Lewis Beach has been substituted for "Where But In America," which had previously been decided upon. The Dramatic Club has presented several plays in different cities during the month of January for the purpose of aiding the Community House campaign. So much time and effort had to be given to these and to the other engagements of the organization that it was impossible to produce a program in time for February 13, as had previously been announced.

COLLEGE SONG DAY TO BE OBSERVED

College Song Day will be observed next Wednesday at Chapel. This is a new event and with the full cooperation of the student body should prove to be a great success. Mrs. Dorsey will be the leader. Mrs. Dorsey has studied under Robert Laurence in his studio at Washington, D. C. Mr. Laurence makes a specialty of community songs.

The Girls' Glee Club, composed of ten sopranos and ten altos, will give a selection, as will the Boys' Glee be sung and a few stunt songs will be sung and a few stunt songs will be tried. An attempt has been made to secure the college orchestra.

THROUGH THE HOOP

It takes a good quintet to defeat Maine and New Hampshire on their own courts in two successive nights. And our team did just that! Coach Dole says the New Hampshire game was the best any Aggie five has ever played for him since he came to Storrs in 1923.

From all reports, Eddy was the scoring star at both Maine and New Hampshire. The Simsbury boy connected for six baskets in each game, making him the high scorer of both encounters. He did more than make baskets, however; his all-around playing was of high order throughout.

What Coach Dole describes as the best play of the season effectively checked a New Hampshire rally in the second half. A tricky backhand pass from Schofield to Makofski, followed by a bullet-like throw to Eddy for a basket—all occurring with speed that completely baffled the New Hampshire defense—shattered the morale of the Granite State five. Their rally was stopped and Connecticut was master of the situation from then on.

Schofield connected for a beautiful long shot from mid-court as the whistle brought the Maine game to a close. The ball was in the air as the whistle blew, and two more points were added to the Nutmeg total.

And Maine beat Dartmouth!

Makofski played his usual star game, giving the Northerners an exhibition of court play that they are still talking about. Allard played his best game of the year at Maine, connecting for two baskets and generally breaking up Maine offensive moves. We can usually count on either Allard or Bitgood slipping down the floor to register a few points in the scoring column. It's your turn in the Vermont game, "Knute"!

While at the University of Maine, the boys visited Old Town, which is located a few miles north of the college. It is the site of a government Indian reservation, and the redmen have a large supply of souvenirs for sale. Proof of this is Greer's knitted cap with the baby blue markings, "Pop" Williams' hand-knitted socks purchased to celebrate his removal from the "pro" list, and other oddities of wearing apparel which our hoopsters are now sporting.

APPOINT ARCHITECT FOR STORRS CHURCH

New Britain Man Selected For Drawing Plans of New Building

Dalbert K. Perry of New Britain has been appointed architect of the new Storrs church by the board of trustees. Mr. Perry was the architect for the Dining Hall, Armory, Holcomb Hall, and is the architect for the new dormitory which is now under construction. Mr. Perry will have his plans and specifications ready in about three months and they will be submitted to the Board of Trustees for approval.

A committee consisting of Professor A. G. Skinner, chairman; Mrs. H. A. Seckerson, Mrs. C. I. Hendrickson, Dr. H. D. Newton, and D. K. Perry have been appointed to provide for the furnishing of the community house.

C. A. Wheeler, S. P. Hollister, and A. G. Brundage will take charge of the disposal of the old church. It is very probable that the church will not be destroyed, but will be removed to another site. However, specific plans have not as yet been made.

There will be a committee on administration for the community house. This committee will provide for seven members. There will be two representatives, a man and a woman from the student body; one member from the college staff; one from the community at large; one from the Storrs Women's Club; one from the ladies' circle of the church; and one from the Board of Trustees of the church. These representatives will be appointed by their respective groups. The purpose of this committee is to determine the general policies and uses of the buildings, and to provide the building with an executive director who will have full charge of carrying out the plans of the committee.

W. S. G. A. TO PUBLISH HANDBOOK FOR CO-EDS

The faculty and the Women's Student Government Association have arranged to publish a handbook similar to that distributed each year to the freshman class.

Included in this handbook will be the constitution of the Women's Student Government Association, the constitution of the Women's Executive Council, rules and regulations governing women students residing in Holcomb Hall, short descriptive sketches of the Montieth Arts Society, the Women's Glee Clubs, Women's Student Government Association, and Women's Executive Council. In addition, activities of the social committee will be described.

In the past, women students received this information on mimeographed forms, an arrangement that was not altogether satisfactory. With the publication of the new handbook in the near future, however, it is expected that the difficulty will be overcome.
